DAVID WINFIELD

OF 31

Born October 3, 1951, the exact day that Bobby Thompson slammed "The Shot Heard Around the World" to win the pennant for the New York Giants…didn't have to wait long to embark on a 22-season career with the San Diego Padres, New York Yankees, California Angels, Toronto Blue Jays, Minnesota Twins and Cleveland Indians…went straight to the Major Leagues in 1973 after capturing MVP honors en-route to pitching the University of Minnesota to a College World Series Championship…the 12-time All-Star (1977-88) joined the Yankees prior to the 1981 season and drove in at least 100 runs from 1982-1986, becoming the first Yankee to do so in five consecutive seasons since Joe DiMaggio (1936-42)…was a model of consistency during his eight full seasons with the Yankees, averaging 25 home runs and 102 runs batted in…finished his illustrious career batting .283 with 3,110 hits, 465 home runs and 1,833 runs batted in…is one of seven players to record 3,000 hits and 400 home runs (also Hank Aaron, Stan Musial, Carl Yastrzemski, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Cal Ripken Jr.)…was elected to the Hall of Fame on his first ballot by garnering 387 votes on the 515 ballots cast (84.6%)…will be the first Hall of Famer to play for six teams…is just the 10th Hall of Famer to have never played in the minor leagues…Winfield's legendary status transcends his seven Gold Glove and six Silver Slugger Awards…he is not only revered for his athletic prowess, which includes the distinction of being the only athlete to be drafted in three professional sports: basketball (Atlanta Hawks and Utah Stars), Football (Minnesota Vikings) and baseball (San Diego)…his hands on commitment and charitable contributions to the Winfield Foundation, which he established in 1977, have highlighted a career filled with outreach programs focused on education, healthcare and substance abuse prevention.

GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III
PRINCIPAL OWNER

Now in his 29th season as Principal Owner of the most storied franchise in sports, George M. Steinbrenner guided the Yankees to their 26th World Championship in 2000, the most of any team in history.

With 28 seasons of ownership completed, Mr. Steinbrenner's stewardship has been longer than any other Yankee owner, surpassing Jacob Ruppert's 24 years. (Col. Ruppert purchased the Yankees with Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston on January 11, 1915, bought out his partner on May 21, 1922 and owned the club until his death on January 13, 1939.)

On January 3, 1973, a group formed by Mr. Steinbrenner purchased the Yankees from CBS. Under his direction, it took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the Yankees into World Champions once again. And, in the 28 years he has owned the club (1973-00), the Yankees have posted the highest winning percentage in the Major Leagues at .552 (2,430-1,974). The club's six World Championships during his ownership are also the most in Major League Baseball.

Mr. Steinbrenner's success in the sports world is not limited to the Yankees. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy, where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame, and at Williams College. He began his coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten schools, Northwestern and Purdue, and followed that by assembling championship basketball teams in both the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues.

Mr. Steinbrenner has probably devoted as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee as he has to his many other sporting endeavors. He is currently the Chairman of the U.S.O.C. Foundation and has served as Chairman of the Olympic Overview Commission, which was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the United States Olympic program. In February 1989, he was elected to the position of Vice President, U.S. Olympic Committee, a position he still holds. As a representative of the U.S. Olympic Committee, he accompanied the U.S. Olympic team to Albertville, France in 1992; Lillehammer, Norway in 1994; and Atlanta in 1996.

In 1997, he was honored as the New York Society of Association Executives' 1997 "Outstanding New Yorker" and was named Tampa's "Citizen-of-the-Year" in 1998. Mr. Steinbrenner currently serves as a trustee for the NCAA Foundation and is also a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors.

BRIAN CASHMAN
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

In his fourth season as General Manager of the New York Yankees in 2000, 33-year-old Brian McGuire Cashman became only the third GM in baseball history to win at least three consecutive World Championships and the first to do it in his first three seasons. Only former Yankee General Managers Ed Barrow (four straight, 1936-39) and George Weiss (five straight, 1949-53) have also achieved the feat.

After serving five years as Assistant General Manager, Mr. Cashman was named General Manager of the Yankees on February 3, 1998. At 31 years old when promoted, Mr. Cashman became the second-youngest General Manager in baseball history (Randy Smith was 29 when named General Manager of the San Diego Padres on June 9, 1993). Upon winning the 1998 World Championship, he became the youngest GM to win a World Series, breaking the previous record held by the Minnesota Twins' Andy McPhail (33) in 1987.

On March 4, 1998, Mr. Cashman broke new ground in New York baseball history, naming Kim Ng to the position of Assistant General Manager. She became only the second female to hold such a position in Major League Baseball (Elaine Weddington Steward was named Assistant GM of the Boston Red Sox in 1990).

Mr. Cashman joined the Yankees family as an intern in the Minor League and Scouting Department in June 1986 and, upon graduation from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. in June 1989, became a full-time Assistant in Baseball Operations. He was named Assistant General Manager, Baseball Administration on November 24, 1992 with responsibilities which included contract negotiations, player waivers, arbitration, budget and scheduling. He also served the club as Assistant Farm Director (1990-92).

Mr. Cashman attributes his quick rise through the organization to the direct tutelage he received from current and former General Manager's Bill Bergesch, Jim Bowden, Clyde King, Gene Michael, Bob Quinn, Brian Sabean, Syd Thrift, Bob Watson and Woody Woodward.

In 2000, Mr. Cashman received his second consecutive "40 Under 40 Award" presented by The Sports Business Journal, recognizing the top 40 people under the age of 40 who have made the greatest impact in the sports business industry. Mr. Cashman was also honored as the "Executive of the Year" in 2000 by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA.

Born on July 3, 1967 in Rockville Center, NY, he grew up in Lexington, KY, where his father, John, presides over Castleton Farm, an acclaimed standard-bred breeding ground. Mr. Cashman attended Georgetown Prep in Rockville, MD, before attending Catholic University in Washington, D.C. to major in history. He also established several single-season school records while playing baseball for the Division III Cardinals.

He resides in Scarsdale, NY with his wife Mary and their daughter, Grace Eva, born on 10/7/98.

In 2000, the Yankees became only the fourth team in Major-League history to win at least three straight World Championships. The complete list of teams with two or more consecutive World Championships:

MARK NEWMAN
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Mark Newman is in his second season as Vice President of Baseball Operations after three years as the club's Vice President of Player Development and Scouting. It is his 13th season with the Yankees.

In his current role, Mr. Newman works with the General Manager, Brian Cashman, on player personnel issues and supervises player movement and personnel evaluations throughout the Yankees' farm system. He also oversees all of the Yankees' scouting operations.

In addition to appearing in postseason play for six straight seasons with four World Championships in five years, the Yankees are one of only four organizations whose minor-league affiliates have posted winning records in every season since 1990 (also Cleveland Indians, Oakland A's and New York Mets).

Of the players on the 40-man roster to begin spring training in 2001, 22 were either selected by New York in the June draft or signed their first professional contract with the Yankees' organization, including All-Stars Bernie Williams, Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera. The Yankees were selected the 1999 "Organization of the Year" by USA Today, a designation which goes to the organization with the most prospects.

Mr. Newman began his career in the Yankee organization in 1989 as Coordinator of Instruction and served in that position until his promotion to Director of Player Development and Scouting in 1996. He was named Vice President of Player Development and Scouting in 1997. In his first role with the club, he oversaw all managers and coaches in the farm system and planned both Major and Minor League spring training.

In 1972, Mr. Newman began a baseball coaching career at 22 years old as pitching coach for Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL. After spending nine successful seasons there--during which he earned his law degree--he was named Head Baseball Coach at Old Dominion University in 1981. Mr. Newman's impressive 321-167-3 record in nine seasons (1981-88) was recognized with his induction into the ODU Hall of Fame in 1997.

KIM NG
VICE PRESIDENT, ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Kim Ng (pronounced ANG) enters her fourth year as Assistant General Manager of the New York Yankees. When named to the post on March 4, 1998, she became only the second female to hold such a position in Major League Baseball (Elaine Weddington Steward was named Assistant GM of the Boston Red Sox in January 1990). And, at 29 years old when hired by the Yankees, she was also the youngest Assistant General Manager in the Major Leagues.

Prior to joining the Yankee organization, Ms. Ng served as Director of Waivers and Player Records for the American League in 1997. She approved all player transactions and contracts and assisted American-League General Managers in the interpretation and application of Major-League rules and the Basic Agreement.

Ms. Ng began her career in baseball in 1990 as an intern in arbitration and contract negotiations for the Chicago White Sox. She was promoted in 1991 to Special Projects Analyst and in 1995 to Assistant Director of Baseball Operations. In those positions, she assisted in all facets of the day-to-day operations of the Major-League club, including contract negotiations, trades and free agent signings, and tracking Major-League player movement.

Ms. Ng is a 1990 graduate of the University of Chicago with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Public Policy. As a senior, she was honored as the Ballwebber "Athlete of the Year" and was named MVP of the Women's Intercollegiate Varsity Softball team.

A native of Ridgewood, NJ, she resides in Manhattan with her husband, Tony Markward.

2000 POST-SEASON SUMMARY

DIVISION SERIES
YANKEES (3) OAKLAND ATHLETICS (2)

GAME 1 -- October 3 at Network Associates Coliseum -- Athletics 5, Yankees 3: For the first time since the 1996 World Series (10/22 vs. Atlanta) the Yankees dropped the first game of a playoff series, losing on the road to the Athletics 5-3. In meeting the Athletics in the post-season for the first time since the strike shortened 1981 A.L.C.S., the loss was only the fourth Yankees defeat in their last 26 post-season games. Ramon Hernandez led the Athletics going 2-for-4 with 1 R and 2 RBI including a go-ahead double in the sixth inning. David Justice played in his Major-League Record 78th playoff game, breaking the mark that he had shared with Reggie Jackson. Derek Jeter (0-for-3) had his record-tying 17-game postseason hitting streak snapped.

GAME 2 -- October 4 at Network Associates Coliseum -- Yankees 4, Athletics 0: The Yankees bounced back in Game Two behind the combined six-hit shutout hurled by Andy Pettitte and Mariano Rivera. Glenallen Hill's two-out RBI-single in the sixth inning snapped the scoreless tie. Luis Sojo (1-for-3) followed Hill's single with a two-run double as the Yankees never looked back while cruising to a 4-0 victory. Pettitte scattered five hits over 7.2 innings while walking only one batter to go along with three strikeouts.

GAME 3 -- October 6 at Yankee Stadium -- Yankees 4, Athletics 2: The Yankees took a 2-1 series lead by recording their 10th straight post-season win at home (including six straight in Division Series play). Orlando Hernandez improved his career post-season record to 6-0 with a 1.24 ERA (51.0 IP, 7 ER), becoming the first pitcher since Orel Hershiser to win his first six post-season decisions and second Yankee (also Lefty Gomez). Mariano Rivera recorded his second save of the series and extended his post-season consecutive scoreless inning streak to 29.0 innings. Bernie Williams (1-for-3) improved his career Division-Series-leading hit total to 27.

GAME 4 -- October 7 at Yankee Stadium -- Athletics 11, Yankees 1: Oakland struck early to knot up the series and got all the run support they needed behind Olmedo Saenz's first-inning three-run home run. Making his playoff debut, Barry Zito earned the win by surrendering just one run over 5.2 innings. The 11-1 defeat marked the 14th straight game that the Yankees lost when scoring three runs or less. The A's set a franchise record for their largest margin of victory in a playoff game.

GAME 5 -- October 8 at Network Associates Coliseum -- Yankees 7, Athletics 5: The Yankees set the tone early jumping all over the A's by scoring six runs in the first inning and knocking out Gil Heredia after just working 0.1 of an inning. The six run first inning also matched the most runs ever scored by the Yankees in the first inning of a playoff game (also Game 3 of the 1960 World Series vs. Pittsburgh). Tino Martinez led the Yankee attack batting 3-for-5 with two doubles and 3 RBI while helping the two-time defending World Series Champions hold on for a 7-5 clincher in the elimination game. With his third save of the series, Mariano Rivera established the Major-League record for most saves in post-season play with 16 (surpassing Dennis Eckersley).

Freddy Garcia made the start for Seattle, limiting the Yankees to three hits over 6.2 innings to go along with his eight strikeouts. Both teams combined for an ALCS record 22 strikeouts, surpassing the previous mark of 21 set by the Yankees and Red Sox in Game Five of the 1999 ALCS.

GAME 2 -- October 11 at Yankee Stadium -- Yankees 7, Mariners 1: The Yankees bounced back in Game Two, but trailed 1-0 until they broke the game open with a seven-run outburst in the eighth inning. GAME 3 -- October 13 at Safeco Field -- Yankees 8, Mariners 2: The Yankees seized a 2-1 series lead with a 8-2 win in Seattle behind 13 hits in a game where only one Yankee starter failed to get a hit. Bernie Williams added some potency to the middle of the line-up going 3-for-4 with a home run (#1) and 2 RBI. David Justice also contributed with two hits and 3 RBI. Seattle's starter Aaron Sele's career post-season record fell to 0-3 with all three losses coming against the Yankees. Andy Pettitte improved to 2-0 with a 2.75 ERA (13.1 IP, 4 ER) in the 2000 post-season. Mariano Rivera tossed 1.2 innings of relief to extend his post-season consecutive scoreless streak to a Major-League record 33.1 innings over 23 appearances. Rivera broke the record previously held by Whitey Ford that stood at 31.0 consecutive scoreless innings from 1960-'62.

GAME 4 -- October 14 at Safeco Field -- Yankees 5, Mariners 0: The Yankees took their third straight game against Seattle behind the one-hit shutout hurled by Roger Clemens (9.0 IP, 1 H, 0 ER, 2 BB, 15 K) that included a barrage of fifteen strikeouts. It was only the seventh complete-game one-hitter thrown in post-season history and his 15 strikeouts, tying an ALCS record, also tied for the third in post-season history. Derek Jeter's fifth-inning three-run home run, his second of the 2000 ALCS, was all the run support Clemens needed as the Yankees cruised to a 5-0 shutout.

GAME 6 -- October 17 at Yankee Stadium -- Yankees 9, Mariners 7: The Yankees captured their 37th American League Championship and third in a row with their second come-from-behind victory of the series. A six-run seventh inning broke the game open as the Yankees led by ALCS MVP David Justice set the stage for the first Subway Series since 1956. Justice, who hit two home runs and had 8 RBI, began the scoring in the seventh inning with a three-run homer that put the Yankees ahead for good. In the process, Justice also extended his post-season RBI total to 51. With the win Orlando Hernandez improved to 3-0 with a 3.62 ERA (22.1 IP, 9 ER) in the 2000 post-season and became the first pitcher in history to win his first eight decisions in the post-season. WORLD SERIES
YANKEES (4) NEW YORK METS (1)

GAME 1 -- October 21 at Yankee Stadium -- Yankees 4, Mets 3 (12): Game One of the first Subway Series since 1956 ended up being the longest game in World Series history at four hours and fifty-one minutes. With two outs in the 12th inning Jose Vizcaino's (4-for-6) two-out single drove home the winning run propelling the Yankees to a 4-3 come-from-behind victory. The win represented their 13th straight in World Series competition, breaking the 12-game streak they had shared with the 1927, 1928 and 1932 Yankees. Trailing 3-2 heading into the bottom half of the ninth inning, the Yankees rallied behind Chuck Knoblauch's sacrifice fly that enabled Paul O'Neill to score the game-tying run. Mike Stanton tossed two perfect innings of relief to pick up the win. Derek Jeter extended his World-Series hitting streak to ten games with his eighth inning single. The Mets took the lead in the seventh inning with the biggest hit coming from pinch-hitter Bubba Trammell who knocked in two runs with a single. This 2000 Fall Classic marks the 16th time (now 14th time in New York) that two teams from the same city have met in the World Series. For the Yankees this was their 37th World Series appearance, 19 more than any other Major League franchise (St. Louis Cardinals-15)

GAME 2 -- October 22 at Yankee Stadium -- Yankees 6, Mets 5: The Yankees took a 2-0 edge in the Series behind eight strong shutout innings hurled by Roger Clemens (2 H, 0 BB, 9 K). Trailing 6-0 heading into the ninth inning, the Mets rally came up just short after cutting into the Yankee lead with a Mike Piazza two-run homer and a Jay Payton three-run home run. Derek Jeter was 3-for-5, extending his World-Series hitting streak to 11 games and improved his career Series average to .333 (21-for-63). Tino Martinez (3-for-5) raised his postseason batting average to .382 (21-for-55). With the win the Yankees also extended their World-Series record winning streak to 14 consecutive games.

GAME 3 -- October 24 at Shea Stadium -- Mets 4, Yankees 2: The Yankees saw their 14-game World Series winning streak come to a halt as the scene shifted across town to Shea Stadium. Orlando Hernandez (7.1 IP, 9 H, 4 ER, 3 BB, 12 K) became just the 11th pitcher in World Series history to record at least 12 strikeouts in a game. However, he suffered his first career post-season loss dropping his career playoff record to 8-1 with a 2.21 ERA. Robin Ventura was 2-for-3 and got the Mets on the board first with a solo home-run leading off the second inning. Benny Agbayani doubled home the go-ahead run in the 8th inning to extend his post-season hitting streak to 13 games.

GAME 4 -- October 25 at Shea Stadium -- Yankees 3, Mets 2: The Yankees got off to a quick start when Derek Jeter led off Game Four with a first-pitch home run becoming the first player to accomplish that feat since Cincinnati's Pete Rose on October 30, 1972 (Game Five at Oakland). In each of the first three innings the Yankees scored a run and that was enough to hold on for a 3-2 victory. The Yankees seized a 3-1 series lead by winning each of their three games by one run. Mariano Rivera earned his sixth career World Series save, tying Rollie Fingers for the all-time career record. Paul O'Neill collected two more hits while batting .563 (9-for-16) for the series. Jeff Nelson tossed 1.1 scoreless innings (1 H, 1 BB, 1 K) of relief giving him his second career post-season victory and first in World Series play.

GAME 5 -- October 26 at Shea Stadium -- Yankees 4, Mets 2: The Yankees captured their 26th World Series title by breaking a 2-2 tie in the ninth inning with a two-out rally. Their two-run ninth inning helped put them on top for their second come-from-behind victory of the World Series. Luis Sojo, who had been a defensive replacement in the eighth inning, singled home the game-winning run in the ninth inning. Derek Jeter was named MVP after batting .409 (9-for-22) with two home runs, one triple, two doubles and two runs batted in. Jeter scored a run and got a hit in every game of the series and set a five-game World-Series record with 19 total bases. Mike Stanton tied a World-Series record with his second win of the series in relief. By recording his second save of the series Mariano Rivera set a World-Series record with seven career saves. Manager Joe Torre improved his career World-Series record to 4-0, tying Walter Alston for the 4th most World Series titles ever won by a manager.

James P. Dawson Award

The James P. Dawson Award was established in honor of the late sportswriter of the New York Times who died during spring training while covering the Yankees. It is presented annually to the outstanding rookie in spring training. Two winners of the award, Tony Kubek in 1957 and Tom Tresh in 1962, went on to win American League Rookie-of-the-Year Awards. The award first was presented to rookie Norm Siebern by manager Casey Stengel in St. Petersburg at the conclusion of spring training in 1956. Media who regularly cover the Yankees vote on the winner.

Catalona...Torre missed the season's first 36 games as the Yankees went 21-15 in his absence under Acting Manager Don Zimmer...he returned to the club on 5/18/99 at Boston and picked up his first win of the season two days later...after coming to New York with a career managerial record of 894-1003--109 games under .500--Torre has gone 487-322 in his five seasons with the Yankees to bring his career record to 1381-1325...only Casey Stengel has come from further below .500 to reach the .500 mark for a career...Stengel

Joe Torre's World-Series winning percentage of .842 (16-3) is the highest ever for a manager appearing in more than one series...he is tied (with Walter Alston) for fourth on the all-time list for most World Series titles and is tied for seventh (with Sparky Anderson) for most World Series victories...Torre is the only person ever to manage a team to three World Championships without a defeat and is one of only three men to manage a team to as many as three straight World Series titles, joining Casey Stengel (five straight) and Joe McCarthy (four straight).

1992: Finished 4th in the A.L. Cy Young voting, going 18-5 with a 2.54 ERA in 32 starts...his .783 winning percentage led the majors and was fourth best in club history behind Dave McNally (.808, 21-5 in 1971); Jim Palmer (.800, 16-4, in 1969) and Wally Bunker (.792, 19-5 in 1964)...at 23, became the O's youngest 18-game winner since 19-year-old Wally Bunker won 19 games in 1964...the only other Orioles to win that many games at a younger age are Steve Barber and Chuck Estrada, who both won 18 games as 22-year-olds in '61 and '60, respectively...his 2.54 ERA was third best in the A.L. and the lowest by an Oriole (excluding abbreviated '81 season) since Jim Palmer in '78 (2.46)...the last time an A.L. pitcher Mike's age or younger posted an ERA that low was in '76 when Mark Fidrych (2.34) and Frank Tanana (2.43) did it at 22 and 23, respectively...led the O's in innings pitched (241.0) and was eighth in the A.L....his IP total was the most by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker's 261.0 in '84...allowed two runs or less in 20 of 32 starts and one run or less 14 times...began the season 5-0 and finished the year with a seven-game winning streak over his last nine starts...in his first start after the All-Star Break, 7/17 at Texas, pitched the 29th one-hitter in club history, winning 8-0 with 10 strikeouts over 20-game winner Kevin Brown...Kevin Reimer broke up the no-hit bid with a one-out double in the fifth...at 23 years-8 months, became the youngest Oriole pitcher to make the All-Star team since Chuck Estrada (22) in '60.

1991: Split the season between Triple-A Rochester and the Majors...went 4-5 with a 2.88 ERA in 12 starts with the Orioles...joined the Orioles on 7/31 and became the O's most effective starter over the final two months of the season...finished with the lowest ERA (2.87) among the 29 Major-League rookies with 10 or more starts...posted the A.L.'s second best ERA after 9/1 (1.66), behind only Oakland's Mike Moore (1.46)... after 9/1, Mussina allowed two runs or less in all six starts, but was only 2-1...fanned 10 batters in his first ML win, 10-2, at home over Texas on 8/14...lost 1-0 in his Major League debut on 8/4 at Chicago (7.2 IP, 4 H, 1 ER, 4 BB, 1 K) on a homer by Frank Thomas...when promoted from Triple-A Rochester on 7/31, was tied for the International League lead in wins (10), 2nd in ERA (2.87) and strikeouts (107)...was the winner of the first Palmer Prize as the top pitcher in the O's minor league system.

PERSONAL: Was signed by Orioles scout Ed Sprague...earned a degree in economics from Stanford University in December '90...finished in only 3 1/2 years...signed a national letter of intent to attend Stanford, but O's picked him in the 11th round of the June '87 draft anyway...he did not sign...purchases game tickets for local youth charity organizations; he calls his group the "Mooseketeers"...since 1997, he has worked with the College Bound Foundation and Lycoming County (PA) Chapter for the American Red Cross...in '98, Mike read a PSA for Junior achievement...last year was the Orioles/Baltimore Sun Summer Reading spokesperson and supported the Baltimore County "Reading Makes Cents" program...returned to Baltimore the past four off-seasons to participate in the annual Orioles FanFest.

YANKEE PITCHERS AS BATTERS: From 1973 to 1996, only five Yankee pitchers came to bat in regular-season play: Lindy McDaniel was 0-2 in 1973, Sparky Lyle was 0-1 in 1974, Catfish Hunter was 0-1 in 1976, Ron Davis was 0-2 in 1979-80 and Rick Rhoden was 0-1 in 1988....Rhoden, the last Yankee pitcher to hit before '97, started as the designated hitter on 8/11/88 vs. Baltimore and batted seventh in the lineup...he grounded out to third base in the third inning off Jeff Ballard, scoring Jay Buhner from third...Rhoden's AB was the first instance since the inception of the DH that a pitcher started and played a game as the DH...other "lasts" by pitchers at the plate:

LAST MULTI-HIT GAME: Steve Kline, 9/27/72 at Detroit (2-for-4, 1R)
LAST EXTRA-BASE HIT: David Cone, 6/9/99 at Philadelphia (double)
LAST HOME RUN: Lindy McDaniel, 9/28/72, at Detroit (off Mickey Lolich)

* Lefthanded pitcher + Perfect Game

On July 18, 1999, David Cone tossed only the 16th perfect game in Major-League Baseball history. It came only one season after David Wells accomplished the feat and gave the Yankees a record three perfect games in their history, including Don Larsen in the 1956 World Series. Prior to Wells' and Cone's, perfect games had only been pitched in consecutive seasons once (by Jim Bunning of the Phillies in 1964 and the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax in 1965) and never by pitchers from the same team. Yankee Stadium also became the only park to host as many as three perfect games (Dodger Stadium was the site of perfect games by Koufax in 1965 and Montreal's Dennis Martinez in 1991).

ONE-HIT GAMES

Yankee pitchers have thrown 56 one-hitters, the most recent coming on 9/26/97 at Detroit, when four pitchers--Andy Pettitte, Brian Boehringer, Mariano Rivera and Jeff Nelson--combined to limit the Tigers to a third-inning single by Travis Fryman...the last complete-game one-hitter was tossed by Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California in a 5-0 Yankee win.

Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled three CG one-hitters for New York and both men participated in a fourth...Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw two, with one of Bevens' coming in Game Four of the 1947 World Series...Bevens was one out from a no-hitter when the Dodgers' Cookie Lavagetto doubled in two runs to give Brooklyn a 3-2 victory...it was the last game Bevens and Lavagetto ever played in the Majors.

The Yankees have been held to one hit 51 times, the last on 9/18/00 by Cleveland's Bartolo Colon in a 2-0 Indians' win at Yankee Stadium...Luis Polonia broke up Colon's no-hit with an eighth-inning single...it was only the fourth one-hitter vs. the Yankees since 1990 (also Oakland's Steve Ontiveros on 5/27/95 at Oakland; Greg Harris/Jeff Reardon on 6/7/90 at Boston; and Pedro Martinez on 9/10/99 at Yankee Stadium)...Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton and Nolan Ryan are the only three men with a pair of one-hitters against the Yankees with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913...Hoyt Wilhelm, who no-hit the Yankees in 1958, also tossed a one-hitter against them in 1959.

Horace Clarke and Don Mattingly are the only Yankees to twice serve as no-hit spoilers...Clarke had the only hit in no-hit bids by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro...in a single month in 1970, Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters...on 5/2/84 at Chicago, Mattingly ruined a perfect game for LaMarr Hoyt with a wind-blown single in the seventh inning, and on 6/29/85 vs. Milwaukee, he also broke up a no-hit bid by Moose Haas, again with a seventh-inning single...on 9/12/81 at Yankee Stadium, Boston LHP Bob Ojeda took a no-hitter into the ninth inning only to have Rick Cerone lead off with a double, followed by a Dave Winfield double.

DID YOU KNOW...

With the 1991 rule change negating no-hitters of less than nine innings, the Yankees have not been victimized by a no-hitter longer than any other team--since September 20, 1958 at Baltimore (Hoyt Wilhelm). Entering 2000, they have gone 42 seasons/6,650 games without being no-hit. (The Chicago Cubs own the second longest streak. They were last no-hit--by Jim Maloney, Cincinnati--on August 19, 1965.)

YANKEE GRAND SLAMS

The Yankees hit six grand slams in 2000 after belting seven in 1999...they hit nine in 1998 (second-highest total in franchise history behind only 10 in 1987), four in 1997 and three in 1996...on 9/14/99 at Toronto, Bernie Williams and Paul O'Neill hit grand slams in the seventh and eighth innings respectively, the first time in franchise history that players have hit grand slams in consecutive innings...it was also only the third time in franchise history that the Yankees had two grand slams in the same game (also Tony Lazzeri on 5/24/36 at Philadelphia; and Dave Winfield and Don Mattingly on 6/29/87 at Toronto)...in 1998, Shane Spencer led the club with three grand slams (most ever by a Yankee rookie)...he also became the first Yankee rookie to hit at least two slams in one season since Yogi Berra in 1947...Yankee pitchers allowed nine grand slams in 2000, the most in franchise history (surpassing eight in 1995)...the Yankees' most-recent cluster of grand slams came in April 1994, when they hit three grand slams in a five-day span from 4/22-4/27 (Paul O'Neill, Matt Nokes, Jim Leyritz)...the Yankees' 10 slams in 1987 tied the Major-League record (since broken by Baltimore and Seattle in '96)...Don Mattingly hit a Major-League record six of the 10 grand slams in '87...four pitchers have hit grand slams for the Yankees, including Red Ruffing (1933), Spud Chandler (1940), Don Larsen (1956) and Mel Stottlemyre (1965)...there have been 20 pinch-hit grand slams in Yankee history (by 16 players), the last by Glenallen Hill on 7/28/00 at Minnesota...only 20 times in Major-League history has there been last-inning grand slams that have taken the team to sudden victory when trailing by three runs...Babe Ruth is the only Yankee to do it, hitting a one-out grand slam off Chicago's Sarge Connally in the 10th inning of New York's 6-5 win on 9/24/25...Ruth twice hit slams on consecutive days.

YANKEE PINCH-HIT HOME RUNS

The Yankees recorded four pinch-hit home runs in 2000 after hitting only one in 1999, equaling the club's lowest single-season total of the nineties (also had one in 1996 and 1997)...in 1998, the Yankees hit two pinch-hit home runs, both ninth-inning grand slams by Darryl Strawberry (on 5/2 at Kansas City and 8/4 at Oakland, G2)...the Yankee franchise has 229 pinch-hit home runs, including 20 pinch-hit grand slams...Dion James' home run on 5/2/92 vs. Minnesota (off Gary Wayne) was the 200th pinch-hit home run in franchise history.

YANKEES IN THE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

According to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, the New York Yankees have better representation than any other club, with 24 members (the New York Giants have placed the most players in the Hall with 20)....for the purpose of their comparison, games played was the determing factor for position players who suited up for more than one club....for pitchers, games won was the yardstick used....based on the Hall of Fame's criteria, therefore, both Reggie Jackson and "Catfish" Hunter are not counted among the Yankees' 24 representatives as Jackson played more games for Oakland and Hunter won more games with the A's....both players, however, played five distinguished seasons for the Yankees....the former Yankee players, managers and executives in the Hall of Fame are (year of election in parenthesis):

Ed Barrow (1953)	Lou Gehrig (1939)	Tony Lazzeri (1991)	Red Ruffing (1967)
Yogi Berra (1972)	Lefty Gomez (1972)	Larry MacPhail (1978)	Babe Ruth (1936)
Jack Chesbro (1946)	Waite Hoyt (1969)	Lee MacPhail (1998)	Casey Stengel (1966)
Earle Combs (1970)	Jim "Catfish" Hunter (1987)	Mickey Mantle (1974)	George Weiss (1970)
Bill Dickey (1954)	Miller Huggins (1964)	Joe McCarthy (1957)	Dave Winfield (2001)
Joe DiMaggio (1955)	Reggie Jackson (1993)	Herb Pennock (1948)
Whitey Ford (1972)	Willie Keeler (1939)	Phil Rizzuto (1994)

Other members of the Baseball Hall of Fame who also played for or managed for the Yankees are: Frank "Home Run" Baker" (1955), Frank Chance (1946), Stan Coveleskie (1969), Clark Griffith (1945), Burleigh Grimes (1964), Bucky Harris (1975), Bill McKechnie (1962), Johnny Mize (1981), Phil Niekro (1996), Gaylord Perry (1991), Branch Rickey (1967), Joe Sewell (1977), Enos Slaughter (1985), Dazzy Vance (1955) and Paul Waner (1952).

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

Beginning with Lou Gehrig's number 4 in 1939, the Yankees have retired 14 uniform numbers to honor 15 players and managers.

1 Billy Martin

Born: May 16, 1928 in Berkeley, CA. Died: December 25, 1989 in Binghamton, NY. Height: 5-11, Weight: 165. Threw and batted righthanded. Number retired in 1986. Had as much "Yankee Pride" as any player or manager to wear pinstripes and he implanted his own fierce desire to win in his teams. Played an intrigal part in four World Series in the 50's as a player, and added another ring managing the Yankees in 1977. His .333 lifetime series batting average is fourth with at least 75 AB on the all-time series list. Combative and daring. Martin was a brilliant baseball strategist and a legend in Yankee history.

3 Babe Ruth

Born: February 6, 1895 in Baltimore, MD. Died: August 16, 1948 in New York, NY. Height: 6-2, Weight: 215. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1948. Baseball's greatest slugger and the most colorful figure in the game's history. Debuted as a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, winning 89 games over six seasons before being coverted to the outfield because of his tremendous power. Was sold to the Yankees for $120,000 in 1920 and his 54 home runs that year were more than any other American-League team. En- route to 714 career home runs, won 12 home run titles, hitting 60 in 1927. Added 15 home runs in World Series competition as he led the Yankees to seven Series appearances and four World titles. A member of the inaugural class of Hall of Fame inductees in 1936.

4 Lou Gehrig

Born: June 19, 1903 in New York, NY. Died: June 2, 1941 in Riverdale, NY. Height: 6-1, Weight: 212. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1939. Durable, powerhitting first baseman who played in an amazing 2,130 consecutive games between 1925 and 1939. Drove in at least 100 runs for 13 straight seasons (1926-38) and established an American-League record with 184 RBI in 1931. Compiled a .340 lifetime batting average and belted 493 home runs in a career shortened by terminal illness. Was honored at Yankee Stadium on July 4, 1939 and made memorable "Today, I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech. Life was immortalized in classic 1942 motion picture, The Pride of the Yankees, starring Gary Cooper. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1939.

5 Joe DiMaggio

Born: November 25, 1914 in Martinez, CA. Died: March 8, 1999 in Hollywood, FL. Height: 6-2, Weight: 193. Threw and batted righthanded. Number retired in 1952. The "Yankee Clipper" is considered by many experts as the best all-around baseball player in history. Was a sensational hitter for average and power, a splendid, graceful, ball-hawking center fielder with a powerfully accurate arm and a daring and alert baserunner. Compiled a .325 lifetime batting average from 1936 to 1951. The two-time batting champion and three-time MVP powered the Yankees to the first of four consecutive World Championships in his 1936 rookie season. Many rate his 56-consecutive-game batting streak in 1941 as the top baseball feat of all time. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1955.

7 Mickey Mantle

Born: October 20, 1931 in Spavinaw, OK. Died: August 14, 1995 in Dallas, TX. Height: 6-0, Weight: 201. Threw right and switch hit. Number retired in 1969. "The Mick" was the most feared hitter on the most successful team in history. In his best seasons, and there were many, Mantle was simply a devastating player. He could run like the wind and hit tape measure homers, like his famous 565-footer in Washington in 1953. He led the Yanks to 12 fall classics in 14 years, and seven World Championships. He still owns records for most homers, RBI, runs, walks, and strikeouts in World Series play. In 1956, Mantle had one of the greatest seasons ever at the plate. He hit 52 homers with 130 RBI and a .353 average to win the Triple Crown. Mantle was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

8 Yogi Berra

Born: May 12, 1925 in St. Louis, MO. Height 5-8, Weight: 191. Threw righthanded and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1972. A mainstay for the most dominating teams in history, the Yankee that played from the end of World War II until the early 1960's. Although he never led the league in a single major offensive category, he was just the third man to win three Most Valuable Player awards. Selected to play in 15 successive All-Star games. Played on 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions, more than anyone in history. Led Yankees to the 1964 pennant as manager. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1972.

8 Bill Dickey

Born: June 6, 1907 in Bastrop, LA. Died: November 12, 1993. Height: 6-1, Weight: 185. Threw righthanded and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1972. Regarded as one of the greatest catchers of all-time. A durable and tireless worker, he caught more than 100 games in 13 consecutive seasons (1929-41), an American-League record. He did not allow a single passed ball in 125 games behind the plate, another AL record. Dickey also excelled at the plate, batting over .300 in 10 of his first 11 seasons while hitting 202 homers during his career. He handled Yankee pitching staffs on eight World Series teams, winning seven championships.

9 Roger Maris

Born: September 10, 1934 in Hibbing, MN. Died: December 14, 1985 in Houston, TX. Height: 6-0, Weight: 197. Batted lefthanded and threw righthanded. Number retired in 1984. In one of the most dramatic assaults on a baseball record, Maris caught, then surpassed Babe Ruth's famous home run record of 60. In 1961, Maris hit 61 home runs, a Major-League record which stood until 1998.The two-time American League MVP (1960-'61) is also considered as one of the best fielding right fielders in Yankee history.

10 Phil Rizzuto

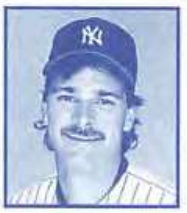
Born: September 25, 1917 in New York, NY. Height: 5-6, Weight 150. Threw and batted righthanded. Number retired in 1985. Playing 13 years for the Yanks, "Scooter" went to the World Series in 10 of those seasons. That stat may best explain why the diminutive shortstop is regarded as a true Yankee legend. He was a durable, outstanding shortstop, skilled bunter and enthusiastic baserunner with a solid .273 lifetime batting average. In 1950 Rizzuto earned the A.L. MVP Award, batting .324 with 200 hits, 92 bases on balls, and 125 runs scored. He batted .320 in the 1951 World Series and was named Series' MVP. Spent 40 years as a Yankee broadcaster (1957-96). Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1994.

15 Thurman Munson

Born: June 7, 1947 in Akron, OH. Died: August 2, 1979 in Canton, OH. Height: 5-11, Weight: 190. Batted and threw righthanded. Number retired in 1979. Was the undisputed leader and most respected man on the Yankee teams that won three AL pennants in a row (1976-78) and two World Championships. Munson was a tremendous defensive catcher, winning the Gold Glove Award in three consecutive seasons (1973-75). From 1975-77, Thurman drove in more than 100 runs and hit better than .300 in each of those three seasons. He hit the first Yankee home run in the "new" Yankee Stadium. There is no more tragic date in Yankee history than August 2, 1979. On that date Munson passed away when the plane he was flying crashed while landing.

16 Whitey Ford

Born: October 21, 1928 in New York, NY. Height: 5-10, Weight: 181. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1974. "The Chairman of the Board" was the ace pitcher on the great Yankee teams of the 1950's and early 60's. The wily southpaw's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best percentage (.690) of any 20th century pitcher. He paced the American League in victories three times, and in ERA and shutouts twice. The 1961 Cy Young Award winner still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.



23 Don Mattingly

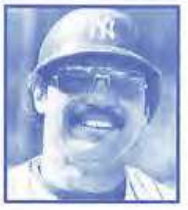
Born: April 20, 1961 in Evansville, IN. Height: 6-0, Weight: 185. Batted and threw lefthanded. Number retired in 1997. "Donnie Baseball" was only the 10th captain to be named by the Yankees in their storied history. The premier first baseman of his era, Mattingly was a nine-time Gold Glove winner. The 1985 American League MVP set records for most grand slams in a season (6), most home runs in seven consecutive games (9) and eight consecutive games (10). A humble man of grace and dignity, Mattingly carried on the legacy of the pinstripe tradition and dedicated his career to the pursuit of excellence.

32 Elston Howard

Born: February 23, 1929 in St. Louis, MO. Died: December 14, 1980 in New York, NY. Height: 6-2, Weight: 196. Batted and threw righthanded. Number retired in 1984. Became the first black player in Yankee history when he made the club in the spring of 1955. The versatile two-time Gold Glove catcher was an important member of the A.L. pennant-winning Yankee teams in nine of his first ten seasons with the club. The 1963 American League MVP, Howard was a clubhouse leader who was respected as both a player and a man. Howard's dignified manner off the field and competitive spirit on the field were positive influences on the Yankee team.

37 Casey Stengel

Born: July 30, 1889 in Kansas City, MO. Died: September 29, 1975 in Glendale, CA. Number retired in 1970. In a distinguished 54-year professional career, "The Old Professor" emerged as one of the game's greatest managers. His feat of guiding the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world titles in a 12-year span ranks as the top managerial accomplishment of all time. Simply put, Casey Stengel was one of the best things to ever happen to the game of baseball. He was an authentic baseball ambassador, making the game fun for millions of Americans. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1966.



44 Reggie Jackson

Born: May 18, 1946 in Wyncote, PA. Height: 5-10, Weight: 181. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1993. One of the game's premier power hitters, "Mr. October" blasted 563 career roundtrippers, sixth all-time. In Game Six of the 1977 World Series, Jackson hit three home runs, all on the first pitch, as the Yankees beat the Dodgers to wrap up the club's first World Championship since 1962. Jackson was an exciting clutch player and an intimidating clean-up hitter with a .490 career slugging percentage. The 1973 American League MVP once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character." Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1993.

April 25, 1999 - A monument in honor of Joe DiMaggio is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park.

July 18, 1999 - On "Yogi Berra Day," David Cone tosses only the 15th regular-season perfect game in baseball history one season after David Wells accomplishes the feat. Ironically, Don Larsen--who tossed a perfect game in the 1956 World Series--throws out the ceremonial first pitch.

September 9 1999 - Jim "Catfish" Hunter dies at age 53 in Hertford, North Carolina.

October 27, 1999 - The Yankees play Baseball's last game of the century and complete a four-game sweep of the Atlanta Braves to capture their 25th World Championship.

October 26, 2000 - The Yankees win their third consecutive World Championship with a five-game triumph over the New York Mets in the first "Subway Series" since 1956. The 4-3, 12-inning win in Game One at Yankee Stadium is the club's 13th straight in World-Series play, breaking the record of the 1927, 1928 and 1932 Yankees.

YANKEE ANNIVERSARIES IN 2001

100th (1901) - The eight-team American League played its first major-league schedule with franchises in Baltimore, Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Washington. By 1902, however, ownership of the troubled Baltimore club was actually acquired by John T. Brush, Chairman of the National League Executive Committee. A.L. President Ban Johnson revoked the franchise and operated the team for the rest of the season. In 1903, the franchise was transferred to New York and named the Highlanders.

80th (1921) - In their 19th season, the Yankees captured the first of their 37 American-League pennants and gave Baseball its first-ever "Subway Series" (vs. the New York Giants). The Giants won the World Series five games to three--the first to be played in one park (the Polo Grounds) and the last of the best-of-nine format (which began in 1919). In an exciting pennant race with Cleveland, Babe Ruth racked up the staggering total of 59 home runs to eclipse his own single-season mark of 54 set a year earlier.

50th (1951)- Future Hall of Famers Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle shared the Yankee outfield. In what would be his final season in pinstripes, the "Yankee Clipper" made his seventh Opening-Day start (on April 17 at Yankee Stadium) while his 19-year-old heir apparent made his Major-League debut in right field. Also making his Yankee debut that day was Public Address Announcer Bob Sheppard.

45th (1956) - Don Larsen tossed the only perfect game in World Series history, retiring 27 consecutive Brooklyn-Dodger batters on October 8th in Game Five of the World Series at Yankee Stadium.

40th (1961) - Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris mounted a season-long assault on Babe Ruth's 34-year-old record of 60 home runs with Maris breaking the mark on the season's final day (October 1 vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium). Mantle, who missed the season's final 11 games with an infection, finished with 54 homers. With the "M & M Boys" combining for 115 home runs, the Yankees amassed a then-Major-League-record 240 homers as a team--as well as 109 victories--to evoke comparisons to the legendary 1927 club.

25th (1976) - The Yankees inaugurated a remodeled Yankee Stadium on April 15th with an 11-4 victory vs. the Minnesota Twins. The Twins' Dan Ford belted the first home run, a two-run shot in the first inning off Yankee starter Rudy May. Thurman Munson hit the first home run forthe Yankees in the new park's second game. On October 14th, Chris Chambliss' ninth-inning home run off Mark Littell in Game Five of the ALCS vs. Kansas City gave the Yankees their 30th pennant and first since 1964.

Joe DiMaggio's 56-game Hitting Streak

Starting on May 15, 1941 with a first-inning single off Chicago's Edgar Smith at Yankee Stadium and continuing until July 17 at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, Joe DiMaggio hit safely in a still-unmatched 56 consective games...the streak was stopped when the Yankee Clipper went 0-for-3 with a walk off the Indians' Al Smith and Jim Bagby Jr. in a 4-3 Yankee win...DiMaggio went 0-for-2 with a walk off starter Smith and grounded into a streak-ending double play off Bagby in the eighth...third baseman Ken Keltner made two outstanding plays on ground outs off Smith...after the streak stopped, DiMaggio had a 16-game hitting streak--giving him hits in 72 of 73 games...during the streak, DiMaggio compiled the following numbers:

At-bats	223	Doubles	16
Hits	91	Triples	4
Batting Average during streak	.408	Home Runs	15
One-Hit Games	34	Strikeouts	7

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS

The Yankees did not hit an inside-the-park home run in 2000...their last inside-the-park home run was by Ricky Ledee on 8/29/99 vs. Seattle...it was the Yankees' second inside-the-park home run of the season (also by Chuck Knoblauch on 4/29 at Texas) and marked the first time the Yankees had two inside-the-park homers in the same season since 1990 (Deion Sanders and Alvaro Espinoza)...Knoblauch's inside-the-parker was the first by a Yankee since Derek Jeter on 8/3/96 at Kansas City...Ledee's was the first by a Yankee at Yankee Stadium since 7/17/90 (Deion Sanders vs. Kansas City)...Mickey Mantle hit six inside-the-park HR in his career, the most by a Yankee...opposing batters hit three inside-the-park HR in 2000 (Enrique Wilson, Cleveland, 5/21 at Jacobs Field; Chad Moeller, Minnesota, 7/29 at the Metrodome; and Eric Chavez, Oakland, 8/8 at Yankee Stadium.

Only a year after they changed Baseball forever with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another buy that would forever change the way the game was watched.

On February 6, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release to announce the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Yankees' current Manhattan home, the Polo Grounds, which they shared unhappily with the landlord Giants of the National League since 1913.

The relationship between the Giants and their tenant crumbled after the 1920 season when Yankee attendance—boosted by their new slugging sensation—doubled to 1,289,422. That was over 100,000 more than the Giants, who, in 1921, notified the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. With their departure from the Polo Grounds now inevitable, Yankee co-owners Jacob Ruppert and Tillinghast l'Hommedieu Huston set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own, Baseball's first triple-decked structure. With an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first to be labeled a "stadium."

Original plans of the architect—the Osborne Engineering Company of Cleveland, Ohio—had the Stadium triple-decked and roofed all the way around. An early press release, in fact, described the Yankees' new home as a field enclosed with towering embattlements, rendering the events inside "impenetrable to all human eyes, save those of aviators." But the initial, grand design was quickly scaled back with the triple-decked grandstand not reaching either foul pole. Contrary to the owners' wishes, the action would be more than visible from the elevated trains that passed by the outfield as well as from the buildings that would spring up across River Avenue. Fortunately, a purely decorative element also survived the project's early downsizing and would become the park's most recognizable feature. A 15-foot deep copper facade would adorn the front of the roof which covered much of the Stadium's third deck. It would give Yankee Stadium an air of dignity that no park has possessed—either before or since.

The new stadium would favor lefthanded power with the right-field foul pole only 295 feet from home plate (though it would shoot out to 429 by right center). Though the left-field pole measured only 281 feet from the plate, righthanded hitters were neutralized by a 395-foot left field and a whopping 460 to left center. It would also be friendly to patrons, boasting an unheard of "eight toilet rooms for men and as many for women scattered throughout the stands and bleachers." (When the Stadium was remodeled 50 years later, it included more than 50 restrooms.) The club's executive offices would be moved from midtown Manhattan and located between the main and mezzanine decks with an electric elevator connecting them with the main entrance.

The construction contract was awarded to New York's White Construction Co. on May 5, 1922 with the edict that the job must be completed "at a definite price" ($2.5-million) and by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, it was. In only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

Officially, 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium for their first glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands more milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Before the game began, John Phillip Sousa and the Seventh Regiment Band led both clubs to the flagpole in deep center field where the American flag and the Yankees' 1922 pennant were raised. Appropriately, Babe Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win.

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, it would immediately become known as "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 34 World Series and the Yankees won their first World Championship over their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the Stadium became the stage for a staggering number of World titles—now totaling 26—it also would become known as "The Home of Champions."

In its early years, when wooden bleachers surrounded the outfield, a grass slope approached the outfield walls from foul pole to foul pole. Outfielders, especially Ruth in right, routinely backed up the small hill to pull down fly balls. Atop the bleachers were advertising signs except for a lone, manually operated, wooden scoreboard in right-center field which was "big enough to record 12 innings for games played by every club in the two major leagues." Over the years, the board would be replaced by more modern models. The Yankees, in fact, would unveil the first electronic message board in 1959.

By 1928, the Stadium was ready for its first major facelift as the triple-deck grandstand in left field was extended beyond the foul pole to its current termination point. The right-field grandstand was extended in 1937, allowing "upper-deck" home runs in both directions. With the '37 expansion of the grandstand, the remaining wooden bleachers were replaced by a concrete structure and the distance to center field dropped from 490 feet to a still-astronomical 461 feet.

Except for the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium would now remain relatively the same until the winter of 1966-67. Then, under the direction of its new owner, CBS, the 44-year-old facility received a $1.5-million modernization, most of which was spent on paint (90 tons of it). The brown concrete exterior was painted white as was the by-now greenish copper facade. And all of the grandstand seats went from green to blue, a color scheme that would be retained when the Stadium was completely remodeled after the 1973 season.

Billed as the world's largest scoreboard in 1959, it came down during renovations after the '73 season. It would be replaced by a 560 foot-long board.

On August 8, 1972, after years of debate about the future of the aging ballpark, the Yankees signed a 30-year lease with the City of New York which called for Yankee Stadium to be completely modernized in time for the 1976 season. After completing the Stadium's 50th-Anniversary season in 1973, the Yankees moved to Shea Stadium for two seasons while their home was almost completely demolished and then rebuilt.

The most striking change of the modernization would be the removal of the numerous, obstructive steel columns which supported the second and third decks as well as the roof. By "cantilevering" the upper decks and by lowering the playing field while increasing the slope of the lower stands, sight lines for fans would be dramatically improved. Of course, with the removal of the original roof, the Stadium almost lost its most-recognizable feature: the facade. But an innovative design concept included an exact replica of the facade atop the new 560-foot-long scoreboard which stretched across the rear of the bleachers. The board would also include baseball's first "telescreen," which could provide instant replays of the action by emplying a then-incredible "nine shades of gray."

Yankee Stadium's exterior changed dramatically, too, as three escalator towers were added, one at each of the Stadium's three entrances. And, with 10 additional rows of seats added to the upper deck, the already-grand Stadium would have an even more majestic look.

The remodeled Yankee Stadium opened on April 15, 1976—with the Yankees topping Minnesota 11-4—and, like its predecessor, would host the World Series in its inaugural season. The Stadium, in fact, hosted the Fall Classic in its first three seasons with the Yankees winning back-to-back World titles in 1977 and 1978.

As one of the world's most-prestigious addresses, Yankee Stadium has also been the home of scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events. While the Yankees were on the road or out of season, the Stadium opened its gates to college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, religious conventions, concerts and even the circus.

Boxing immediately found a home at Yankee Stadium with Benny Leonard winning a 15-round decision over Lou Tendler for the lightweight title three months after the gates opened on July 24, 1923. Until Mohamud Ali stopped Ken Norton on September 28, 1976, thirty championship fights had been fought at the Stadium, perhaps none more memorable than the one for the heavyweight title between Joe Louis and Germany's Max Schmeling on June 22, 1938. After suffering a knockout loss in the initial non-title encounter at the Stadium two years earlier, Louis—now the heavyweight champ—avenged his defeat with a stunning first-round KO in the rematch.

Football also became an immediate fixture at Yankee Stadium with the 1923 Army-Navy game inaugurating a rich history of collegiate and later professional football matchups. On November 12, 1928, with Notre Dame and Army locked in a scoreless game at halftime, the legendary Knute Rockne made his famous "win one for the Gipper" pep talk and the Fighting Irish went out and beat the Cadets, 12-6.

The New York football Giants also called Yankee Stadium home from 1956 through 1973 and, on December 28, 1958, played in what is widely recognized as "the greatest game ever played." With the NFL championship at stake, a crowd of 64,185 watched the Baltimore Colts tie the game 17-17 on a Steve Myrha field goal with seven seconds left. Eight minutes into professional football's first-ever "sudden-death" overtime period, the Colts' Alan Ameche crashed through from the one yard line, ending a contest that would help establish pro football as a major sport.

The Stadium was also home to the New York football Giants from 1956-73.

The Stadium was also an important stop for religious conventions with the conventions of the Jehovah's Witnesses the major outside activity each year. Beginning in 1950, the convention attracted as many as 123,707 people in a single day—far more than any other Stadium event. On October 4, 1965—with the Yankees out of the World Series for only the third time in 17 years—the Stadium hosted an event of worldwide significance. During the first visit to North America by a Pope, Paul VI celebrated mass before a crowd in excess of 80,000. Fourteen years later, John Paul II also made Yankee Stadium a stop on his tour of the United States.

WHY THE YANKEES?

When the American League moved the Baltimore Orioles to New York for the 1903 season, the club made its home at 168th Street and Broadway, one of the highest spots in Manhattan. The team would, therefore, be known as the "Highlanders" and their field "Hilltop Park." As early as 1905, however, the name "Yankees" began popping up in newspapers whose editors undoubtedly were searching for a shorter name for their headlines. By the time the franchise moved from decaying Hilltop Park to the Polo Grounds in 1913, it officially changed its name to the by then commonly-used "New York Yankees."

THE HISTORY OF THE YANKEE UNIFORM

Jack Chesbro models the franchise's earliest "NY" design in 1903.

What would become the most recognizable insignia in sports—the interlocking "NY"—made its first appearance on the uniforms of the New York Highlanders in 1909. The design was actually created in 1877 by Louis B. Tiffany for a medal to be given by the New York City Police Department to Officer John McDowell, the first NYC policeman shot in the line of duty. Perhaps because one of the club's owners, Bill Devery, was a former NYC police chief, the design was adopted by the Highlanders. It first appeared on both the cap and on the jersey's left sleeve, replacing the separated "N" and "Y" which had appeared on the left and right breast each season since 1903 with the exception of 1905. For that season only, the "N" and "Y" were merged side by side into a monogram on the left breast—actually a forerunner of the now legendary emblem.

In 1912, their final season at Hilltop Park, the Yankees—as they were now commonly known—made a fashionable debut at their home opener on April 11. Their traditional white uniforms were now trimmed with black pinstripes, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports history. The Yankees, however, were not the first team with pinstripes and would actually abandon the look for the next two seasons. By 1915, though, the pinstripes were back for good and, with the exception of the cap, the uniform would remain relatively unchanged.

Babe Ruth-sans jersey insignia and number-is greeted by Lou Gehrig after belting his 60th homer in 1927.

The Yankees utilized numerous cap designs—including pinstripes—from 1903 until 1922 when they finally settled on a solid navy cap with the interlocking "NY" insignia. Only one more element would now be needed to achieve a look that remains in place today. In 1917, the Yankees removed the "NY" monogram from the jersey and went with a plain, pinstripes-only look. The "NY" remained off the uniform—except for the cap—for the next 20 years until it was reinstated in 1936. The legendary Babe Ruth, therefore, actually played his entire Yankee career without ever wearing the club's now-legendary insignia on his jersey. With the exception of minor alterations—including bolder pinstripes in the forties—the Yankee uniform has remained unchanged for more than 60 years and has, of course, grown into another of the team's great traditions.

Ping Bodie sports the pinstriped-cap look of 1919-21.

YANKEES WERE FIRST TO MAKE UNIFORM NUMBERS PERMANENT

In 1929, the New York Yankees became the first team to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform. Other teams quickly adopted the idea and, by 1932, uniform numbers became standard for all teams. The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees' roster was made according to the player's position in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore #1, Mark Koenig #2, Babe Ruth #3, Lou Gehrig #4, Bob Meusel #5, Tony Lazzeri #6, Leo Durocher #7, Johnny Grabowski #8, Benny Bengough #9, Bill Dickey #10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties).

YANKEE STADIUM MONUMENT PARK

Since 1932, the New York Yankees have honored their all-time greats with the erection of monuments and plaques in the outfield section of Yankee Stadium.

On May 30, 1932, the first monument was dedicated to the memory of Miller Huggins, who died suddenly in 1929. The diminutive manager guided the Yankees to six American-League pennants and three World Championships in his 11-plus seasons.

Babe Ruth's monument is dedicated on April 19, 1949.

The first plaque was placed on the center-field wall in April 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two more monuments followed in 1941 for Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for slugger Babe Ruth. Later plaques were placed in center field for General Manager Edward Barrow and the Yankees' two great centerfielders, Joe Dimaggio and Mickey Mantle. After his death, Mantle's plaque was removed and replaced by a fourth monument in his honor on August 24, 1996. On April 25, 1999, DiMaggio--who passed away less than two months earlier--was honored with the Stadium's fifth monument.

Originally, the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and flag pole were located in straight-away center field on the warning track about 10 feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go through or behind the monuments to retrieve the long drives.

As much of a tradition as the monuments and plaques themselves was the policy of allowing fans to exit Yankee Stadium through the center-field gates via the warning track, pausing and reflecting on the achievements of these great men. When Yankee Stadium was closed for renovations in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to an area off the field between the Yankee and visiting bullpens. However, fans were not allowed to exit via the warning track and viewing of Monument Park was only allowed at a great distance.

In 1976, two more plaques were added to memorialize managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel. In the 1980's, plaques were dedicated to Yankee greats Thurman Munson (1980), Roger Maris and Elston Howard (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Lefty Gomez and Whitey Ford (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989). The most recent plaques to be dedicated were for two non-uniformed Yankee legends: the "Voice of the Yankees," Mel Allen, on July 25, 1998; and the "Voice of Yankee Stadium," public-address announcer Bob Sheppard, on May 7, 2000.

Plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope John Paul II in 1979 were dedicated in Monument Park by the Knights of Columbus.

In 1985, after the left-center-field fence was moved in, the Yankees were able to open the Monument Park area for fan viewing. Long lines and increased fan interest caused the Yankees to move the fence in further in 1988 and expand the Monument Park area. The Yankees have included a special walk honoring those Yankees who have their uniform numbers retired.

BOB SHEPPARD
"THE VOICE OF YANKEE STADIUM"

Sheppard with long-time admirer Reggie Jackson in 1980.

As synonymous with Yankee Stadium as the copper facade and Monument Park, Bob Sheppard celebrates his 50th anniversary as the public address announcer in 2001.

The legendary "Voice of Yankee Stadium," who has also been dubbed the "Voice of God" by generations of admiring players and fans, began his tenure with the Yankees on April 17, 1951 with Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle sharing the outfield on Opening Day for the only time of the careers.

Sheppard's incredible career behind the mike actually started when he volunteered his services for a charity football game in Freeport, Long Island in the late 1940's. A former collegiate and semi-pro athlete who was then working as a high-school speech teacher, Sheppard's background certainly made him a natural for the public-address role as did his love of sports.

An executive from the Brooklyn Dodgers football team of the All-America Conference was at the game, liked Sheppard's style ("clear, concise and correct") and hired him. The football Dodgers folded after only one season at Ebbets Field (1948), but one of their opponents—the New York Yankees—heard Sheppard's booming voice and offered their PA job at Yankee Stadium. Baseball's Yankees then heard him and offered him the same role for them for the 1950 season. But Sheppard's teaching schedule could not accommodate the 77-game home schedule for baseball (plus World Series games) and he turned down the offer.

"You must remember that in those days there were a lot of afternoon games," Sheppard said. "It was just not possible to do both things."

But the Yankees were persistent and again offered the PA job to Sheppard for the 1951 season with one attractive addition. The Yankees would allow Sheppard to hire a replacement for any games he would have to miss. And the rest, as they say, is history.

"A temporary job," Sheppard said, "that has lasted a half century."

And in the 50 years since Sheppard announced his first lineups, few things in sports have changed as little as Sheppard's distinctive voice and style.

"My style has not changed at all," Sheppard said. "This is how I speak. I speak the same way at home, in the classroom and at church where I'm a lector. I don't change it in the announcer's booth."

Sheppard's unique style has not been limited to Yankee games. In addition to more than 4,000 baseball games (including an incredible 91 post-season contests), Sheppard has been the public-address voice for the football Giants since their move to Yankee Stadium in 1956.

Among the events he lists as the most-memorable of his incredible career are: Don Larsen's perfect game in Game Five of the 1956 World Series on October 8, 1956; Roger Maris' 61st home run on October 1, 1961; Reggie Jackson's three home runs in Game Six of the 1977 World Series on October 18, 1977; and the Giants-Colts overtime NFL Championship Game on December 28, 1958.

Sheppard has also served the New York Titans of the American Football League at the Polo Grounds, the New York Stars of the World Football League at Downing Stadium as well as the New York Cosmos (soccer) and St. John's University basketball and football games. Sheppard also handled the PA duties for five Army-Navy games in Philadelphia.

Two events at Yankee Stadium in which Sheppard would have enjoyed being a part were the two Papal

"There are three things that are perfectly Yankee—the pinstripes, the logo and Bob Sheppard's voice. When I go to heaven, I want Bob Sheppard to announce me...the comedian...Billy Crystal...the comedian."

Billy Crystal

Masses in 1965 and 1979. "I offered my services," Sheppard said, "but they were declined."

Over the years—in his dual role as PA Announcer for the Yankees and Giants—the eloquent linguist has also written and delivered hundreds of moving tributes and eulogies to departed legends ranging from Mickey Mantle and Joe DiMaggio to fallen policemen and firefighters to Diana, Princess of Wales, to Mother Theresa.

Bob Sheppard's Five Favorite Names

5. Alvaro Espinoza
4. Jose Valdivielso
3. Salome Barojas
2. Shigetoshi Hasegawa
1. Mickey Mantle

"Mickey Mantle was the perfect name. Both names starting with the same letter. I just loved announcing his name. And one day, shortly before he died, we were both being interviewed on a television program. All of a sudden, he turned to me and said—right there on the air—that every time he heard me announce his name, he got goose bumps. And I felt the same way about announcing him."

In 1998, Sheppard was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum "Long and Meritorious Service" award by the New York chapter of the BBWAA as well as the "Pride of the Yankees" award by the ball club. He was even honored with a ceremonial first pitch before Game Two of the 1998 World Series at Yankee Stadium (he recorded his own introduction). And, during his 50th season as the Yankees' PA announer in 2000, he presented his most-recent Yankee-Stadium microphone to the Baseball Hall of Fame during induction ceremonies in Cooperstown, NY. The native New Yorker has also been elected to the St. John's University Sports Hall of Fame, the Long Island Sports Hall of Fame and the New York Sports Hall of Fame.

Not bad for a part-time job.

"Most men go to work, but I go to a game," Sheppard said. "How many men would love to do that?"

Sheppard resides on Long Island with his wife, Mary. They have four children, four grand children and four great grand children.

EDDIE LAYTON
YANKEE STADIUM ORGANIST

Like Bob Sheppard, Eddie Layton is synonomous with Yankee Stadium...in 2001, he returns for his 35th season as the Yankee organist...joined the Yankee family in 1967 when team President Mike Burke inaugurated organ music at Yankee Stadium...has also performed hundreds of concerts for the Hammond Organ Company in more than 700 cities around the world...writes commercial scores for radio and television and has performed on the "Mighty Wurlitzer" at famed Radio City Music Hall for the past 24 years...also performed at the Music Hall's gala reopening on October 4, 1999 between legendary performers Sting and Billy Crystal...his 26 albums/CDs, including "Ya Gotta Have Heart" (released in 1997), have sold more than three-million copies...prior to coming to the Yankees, Layton wrote musical scores for soap operas, including Secret Storm, and was the organist for the New York Knicks and Rangers for 18 years...has made numerous guest appearances on David Letterman's TV shows...is a member of the New York Sports Hall of Fame.

JACK LENZ
"THE LITTLE FELLOW WITH THE BIG VOICE"

No one—not even Bob Sheppard himself—remembers who preceded the current Yankee Stadium Public Address Announcer behind the microphone. The last game by this forgotten man would have been 51 years ago, probably the fourth and final game of the 1950 World Series between the Yankees and Philadelphia's "Whiz Kids" Phillies.

But the search for the name of Sheppard's predecessor was not without fruit. Newspaper clippings tucked away at the National Baseball Library in Cooperstown, NY, revealed that the first public address announcer at Yankee Stadium was a man named Jack Lenz, who resided in Washington Heights. Described by the newspaper accounts as the "little fellow with the big voice," Lenz was there when the legendary Stadium opened in 1923 and remained the park's "general announcer" until at least the mid-thirties.

Lenz actually began his career with the New York Giants in 1915 and was later invited to handle the same chore for the Yankees, who shared the Polo Grounds. "I grabbed the offer," Lenz said. "Who wouldn't, with the old Bambino holding forth at the Stadium?"

To do his job, Lenz sat in a box alongside the Yankees' dugout (then on the third-base side of Yankee Stadium) and shouted the batting orders and batteries (each team's pitcher and catcher) as well as the changes throughout the game. Unlike today, players were not announced each time they came to bat as Lenz was called upon only when a change was made.

According to a feature article which appeared in the New York Evening News in the early thirties to celebrate a career of more than 2,000 consecutive games, Lenz—the "mild-mannered megaphone man"—would receive the lineups and batting orders from both managers approximately 15 minutes before the start of the game (3:15 p.m. in those days). After telephoning the press box with the "necessary dope," Lenz would pick up his megaphone and shout the batting orders and batteries. He directed his voice first toward the bleachers, then to the upper tiers of the grandstand and again to the lower stands.

Due to the vast size of their new ballpark, the Yankees actually began the 1927 season with two public address announcers to service Yankee Stadium. After the idea proved successful before a crowd of more than 65,000 on Opening Day, the "two-ply announcer system" of Lenz and a man named George Levy was used again for the second game when the crowd was only about 7,000. The experiment was likely short lived.
